Jo Houghton

What people appreciate about me

My smiley, bubbly character

Good friend

Always up for a laugh

Being there for my friends/family whenever they need me

Making time for people and always trying my best

What is important to me

My Mum & Dad, my sister and brother (Sarah & Tom), my nephew (George) and my soon to be new nephew (still in mummy's tummy) and my pet rabbit, Lola

Visiting my friends that live all over England, thanks to University in Leeds

Making people smile and being a shoulder to cry on when people need me

Going on holiday and visiting new places, making new friends and making lots of memories

Going on nights/days out, having a laugh with my friends and enjoying a cheeky beverage

Not letting people down and meeting deadlines when expected to Helping people out and making them feel valued

How to support me

be respectful and honest with me, it works both ways be kind and smile ☺ stand by side when things get tough join in the laughter and make the memories be respectful towards my family and friends supplying a bottle of wine or a glass of fizz, always seems to work to help one another and to work as a team to get where we need to be
